

Name: _____

Paper bag Book Report

Use each of the sides and the inside of a paper bag to showcase your novel:

FRONT: Title

_____ A scene or image from the book that is most significant

_____ the title of the book that is easy to read _____ the Authors Name that is easy to read

_____ Include a significant quote from the book. Explain why that quote is important, or why it stuck out to you.

Back: Book Summary

_____ Explain the story line of the book (plot) include important events from the beginning, middle and end of the story. Highlight the climax of the story.

_____ Explain the conflicts the main character has in the book

_____ Add Visuals to the back

Side: Characters

_____ List or draw 5 characters from the book, include 2 traits about each character

_____ Explain why the character is important to the story

Side: Settings

_____ Show the places the book takes place (pictures or words)

Inside: Significant Artifacts

_____ Include 7 artifacts that are important to the book. Find real life examples or make miniature versions of items.

_____ Include an 8th item to represent the LESSON LEARNED in the book.

_____ Have a short explanation for each item to explain why you have included it.

Name: _____

	4	3	2	1
Describing events:	All major events are listed in sequence. The climax is identified accurately.	All major events are listed.	Most major events are listed	There are major events missing from the description.
Characters:	5 Main Characters are described fully (Physically, emotionally, importance)	5 main characters are described somewhat.	Less than 5 main characters are described fully.	Less than 5 main characters are described somewhat.
Setting:	The settings in the novel are represented fully.	The settings in the novel are represented but there is missing details.	Some settings have been described fully.	Some settings have been described but there are missing details.
Visual Representations: (Art and decoration / Objects inside the bag)	Objects and images match the description of the novel. There is evidence for the images used. The images enhance the book.	Objects and images match the description of the novel.	Some images and objects are missing to explain the novel.	Images and objects are not related to the novel. There is little or no evidence for the use of the images. The images take away from the novel.
Critical Thinking: Quotes / Theme or message	The theme or message is well thought out explained clearly. There is evidence that supports this theme or lesson	The theme or message matches the novel, but it is confusing. There is no evidence given to support the theme	The theme does not match the novel. There is evidence used that doesn't explain the theme	The theme does not match the novel. There is no support for the theme.

Total

/20